MUST READ!! Hydroxychloroquine: Study Shows Hydroxychloroquine Fails As A Prophylaxis Against COVID-19

Source: Hydroxychloroquine Jun 04, 2020 5 months ago

Hydroxychloroquine: The drug that has used to treat malaria and has been publicly touted by some as drug that can be used as a prophylaxis to prevent getting infected with COVID-19, has in a rigorous a detailed study been proven to be ineffective. The research by medical experts from the University Of Minnesota is the first large, high-quality study to test the drug effectiveness in health workers and others closely exposed to people with the disease.

White House sidestepped FDA to distribute hydroxychloroquine to pharmacies, documents show. Trump touted the pills to treat covid-19.

Documents detail efforts by White House officials to distribute hydroxychloroquine to coronavirus patients in 'hard hit' cities

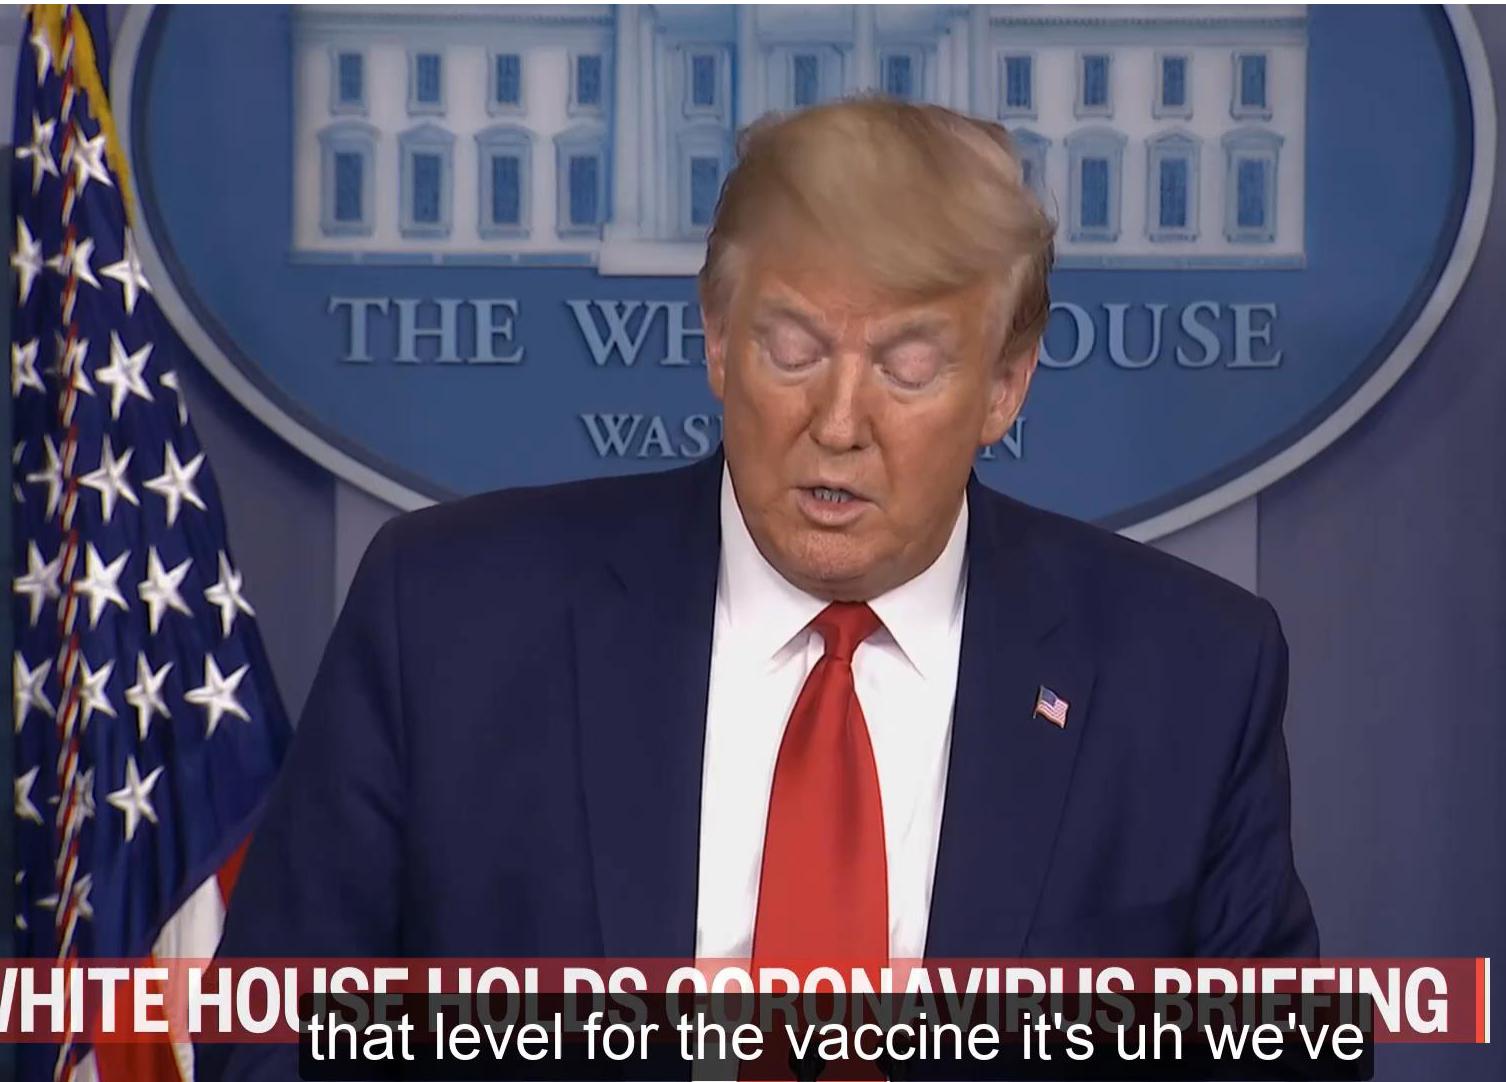

President Trump long advocated hydroxychloroquine pills like those shown above as a treatment for covid-19, even as health experts warned the drug's efficacy was unproven. (John Locher/AP)
